

Inspreagadh

Brian Ó hEadhra (Bord na Gàidhlig), Janet Muller (POBAL), Marc Mac Lochlainn (BRANAR) & Cormac Ó Briain (POBAL)

Díospóireacht / Discussion

D'fhreastal scaifte maith ar chomhdháil POBAL 'INSPREAGADH' - Clár Ealaíona Mar Áis Fhorbartha don Churaclam, Dé hAoine, 13 Bealtaine i dTeach na hÉigse, an tIúir. Bhí múinteoirí, oideachasóirí agus daoine leasmhara eile i láthair le héisteacht le haoichainteoirí: Brian Ó hEadhra (Bord na Gàidhlig & Creative Scotland) a labhair ar An Taithí Albanach agus Marc Mac Lochlainn (Stiúrthóir Ealaíona BRANAR) a labhair ar Na hEalaíona agus na Luathbhlianta. I ndiaidh na gcainteanna, cuireadh dhá cheardlann ar fáil do na toscairí: leabharcheangal le Deirdre Nic Éanruig agus Buntáistí oideachasúla sa Drámaíocht ag Mary Ryan. Tugadh an chomhdháil chun críche le trí ghrúpa dhíospóireacht ar an ábhar.

A large crowd attended POBAL's conference 'INSPREAGADH' - A Programme of Arts as a Developmental Resource for the Curriculum, on Friday 13rd May in the Sean Hollywood Arts Centre, Newry. Teachers, educators and other interested persons were present to listen to guest speakers: Brian hEadhra (Bord na Gàidhlig & Creative Scotland) who spoke on The Scottish Experience and Mark McLaughlin (Artistic Director of BRANAR) who spoke on Arts and Early Years. After the talks, two workshops were provided for delegates: a bookbinding workshop with Deirdre Nic Éanruig and Educational Advantages of Drama with Mary Ryan. The conference concluded with three group discussions on the subject.

Leabharcheangal / Bookbinding

